The Islamic World: Past and Present 3-Volume Set Baltzan 3rd 2004-05-13

Over the past three decades, scholars, government analysts, and terrorism experts have examined the relationship between Islam and politics, but specialists have tended to limit their analysis to a specific country or focus. Few works have provided a geographically comprehensive in-depth analysis. Since 9/11, another wave of literature on political Islam and global terrorism has appeared, much of it superficial and sensationalist. This situation underscores the need for a comprehensive analytical and in-depth examination of Islam and politics in the post-9/11 era and in an increasingly globalizing world. The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Politics, with contributions from prominent scholars and specialists, provides a comprehensive analysis of what we know and where we are in the study of political Islam. It enables scholars, students, and policymakers to understand the interaction of Islam and politics and the multiple and diverse roles of Islamic movements, as well as issues of authoritarianism and democratization, religious extremism, and terrorism regionally and globally.

Makers of Contemporary 3rd Islam Paige 2001-05-03

In this timely and important work, John Esposito and John Voll explore the development of contemporary Islamic movements and thought through the biographies of nine major activist intellectuals who represent a wide range of Muslim societies. Many Muslims have combined revivalist activism with intellectual efforts, but only a few have achieved significant international visibility and influence. By examining the lives and work of nine such internationally recognized figures, Esposito and Voll provide a new understanding of the intellectual foundations of contemporary islamic awareness and politics included are profiles of ismail ragi al faruqi u s palestine khurshid ahmad india pakistan maryam jameelah u s pakistan hasan hanafi sudan rashid ghannoushi tunisia hasan al turabi sudan abdolkarim soroush iran anwar ibrahim malaysia and abdurrahman wahid indonesia these thinkers contributed to some of the most significant intellectual and activist developments in the muslim world during the 1980s and 1990s the period during which islamic movements became a major force in muslim societies and international affairs they helped to organize and lead the movements of islamic renewal and provided the conceptual foundations for the programs those movements advocate together they represent a distinctive phase in the evolution of islamic thinking the ongoing effort to create an effective synthesis of modernity and islamic tradition their work supplies the core of the islamic resurgence of the 1990s and the foundation for what it can become in the twenty first century

The Future of Islam 3rd Paige 2010-02-04 john l esposito is one of america s leading authorities on islam now in this brilliant portrait of islam today and tomorrow he draws on a lifetime of thought and research to provide an accurate richly nuanced and revelatory account of the fastest growing religion in the world here esposito explores the major questions and issues that face islam in the 21st century and that will deeply affect global politics is islam compatible with modern notions of democracy rule of law gender equality and human rights how representative and widespread is islamic fundamentalism and the threat of global terrorism can muslim minority communities be loyal citizens in america and europe in Information the midst of these questions esposito places an important emphasis on the issue of islamophobia the threat it poses and its vast impact on politics and society in the us and europe he also turns the mirror on the us and europe and paints a revealing portrait of how we appear to muslims recent decades have brought extraordinary changes in the muslim world and in addressing these issues esposito paints a complex picture of islam in all its diversity a picture of urgent importance as we face the challenges of the coming century

Information Who Speaks For Islam? 2007 Paige draws By on in depth research to offer insights into what muslims actually believe about key global issues such as democracy radicalism and women s rights in an account that seeks to differentiate extremists from everyday muslims

Asian Islam in the 21st 3rd Century 2008 Paige many today warn that the muslim world and the west are on a collision course the depth and intensity of animosity expressed by bin laden and his al qaeda followers led some to ask why do they hate us the temptation for some american government officials and political commentators was to condemn and dismiss to explain away anti americanism By as irrationality ingratitude jealousy of us success or hatred for the american way of life this approach fails to get at real issues as governments respond to the threat of global terrorism must be balanced by evidence that establishes a direct connection of guilt and by strikes that are focused rather than wide ranging and indiscriminate a disproportionate response runs the risk of a backlash in the middle east and the broader muslim world as well as among american and european muslim citizens that erodes the goodwill of many and reinforces an image of a superpower again placing itself above international law the war against global terrorism should not justify a gradual erosion of important principles and values at home or become a green light to authoritarian regimes in the muslim world to increase repression there is also a need to adopt a more balanced policy in the israeli palestinian conflict if foreign policy issues are not addressed effectively they will continue to provide a breeding ground for anti americanism hatred and radicalism the rise of extremist movements and recruits for the bin ladens of this world short term foreign policies that are necessitated by national interest must be balanced by long term policies and incentives that pressure our allies to promote a gradual and progressive process of broader political participation and power sharing

M Overcoming Orientalism M 2021 orientalism is the term applied to scholarship that reduces islam and muslims to stereotypes of ignorance and violence in need of foreign control it has been used to rationalize europe s colonial domination of most of the muslim world and continued american led interventions in the post colonial period in the past 30 years it has been represented by claims that a monolithic islam and equally monolithic west are distinct civilizations sharing nothing in common and indeed involved in an inevitable clash from which only one can emerge the winner most recently it has appeared in alt right rhetoric anti muslim sentiment measured in public opinion polls hate crime statistics and legislation is reaching record levels since john esposito published his first book nearly 40 years ago he has been guiding readers beyond such politically charged stereotypes the essays in this volume highlight the contributions of scholars from a variety of disciplines who like and often inspired by John Esposito recognize the misleading and politically dangerous nature of orientalist polarizations they present Islam as a multi-faceted and dynamic tradition embraced by communities in globally interconnected but substantially diverse contexts over the centuries the contributors follow Esposito's lead stressing the profound commonalities among religions and replacing orientalist discourse with holistic analyses of the complex historical phenomena that affect developments in all societies in addition to chapters focusing on diversity among Muslims and interfaith relations this collection includes chapters assessing the secular bias at the root of orientalist scholarship and contemporary iterations of orientalism in the form of Islamophobia
