ivan jablonka s history is a contemporary literature offers highly innovative perspectives on the writing of history the relationship between literature and the social sciences and the way that both social scientific inquiry and literary explorations contribute to our understanding of the world

jablonka argues that the act and art of writing far from being an afterthought in the social sciences should play a vital role in the production of knowledge in all stages of the researcher s work and embody or even constitute the understanding obtained history along with sociology and anthropology can he contends achieve both greater rigor and wider audiences by creating a literary experience through a broad spectrum of narrative modes challenging scholars to adopt investigative testimonial and other experimental writing techniques as a way of creating and sharing knowledge jablonka envisions a social science literature that will inspire readers to become actively engaged in understanding their own pasts and to relate their histories to the present day lamenting the specialization that has isolated the academy from the rest of society history is a contemporary literature aims to bring imagination and audacity into the practice of scholarship drawing on the techniques of literature to strengthen the methods of the social sciences this is the last of jim corbett s books on his unique and thrilling hunting experiences in the indian himalayas concluding the narrative begun in the famous man eaters of kumaon corbett writes with an acute awareness of all jungle sights and sounds his words charged with a great love for human beings that lay within his hunting terrain these qualities are what make these stories vintage corbett expanded and updated from the electronic resources section the apa style guide to electronic resources outlines for students and writers the key elements with numerous examples dissertations and theses bibliographies curriculum and course material reference materials including wiki gray literature such as conference hearings presentation slides and policy briefs general interest media and alternative presses such as audio podcasts and online communities such as weblog posts and video weblog posts now in its second edition the
