A Sister's Secret 2021-09-21 love favors the bold but who's to say the risk is truly worth the reward caspian graystone baron strathmore has no plans to wed he survived the inferno that claimed his entire family but the scarred intolerant man he's become has no need of society or the gossipmongers who think he started the blaze to inherit the barony that is why he's shocked when he finds himself drawn to the vivacious and spirited corinna brockman he has no business seeking out her company but that's exactly what he does corinna faces spinsterhood and is generally fine with the prospect she prefers the study of architecture and ancient languages to most traditional pursuits and has no interest in opportunistic suitors who care more for her beauty than her mind which is why her sudden interest in caspian makes no logical sense whatsoever but as it turns out her heart cares not one whit about i logic i can an avowed bachelor and a spinster find the courage to take a chance on love and each other or will they decide the risk to their hearts isn't worth a potential happily
